F-35 COMSEC Engineer

Job Description:
Team member will be involved with the design, development, and integration of secure information and communication systems for the F-35 Lightning II Joint Program Office.

Job Qualifications:
- Possess a BA/BS degree and a minimum of four (4) years' specialized security experience which includes system security engineering services
- If no BA/BS, possess a minimum of ten (10) years' specialized security experience which includes security engineering services
- Demonstrated experience with the NSA cryptographic certification process
- Possess four (4) years' experience with End Cryptographic Unit deliverables
- Possess four (4) years' experience in developing modern key management architectures
- Relevant experience with system security architectures and cryptographic designs required to be releasable to NATO and Foreign Military Sales customers
- Possess a Top Secret clearance with a Periodic Reinvestigation no older than five years

Additional information about FMS Secure Solutions, LLC can be obtained from www.fmssecuresolutions.com or by e-mailing jobs@fmssecuresolutions.com.